When you leave the A361 follow signs to Barnstaple Town Centre, watch out for a McDonald's on the left hand side (just after the second roundabout), turn right at the next roundabout, left at the following roundabout with the Army Reserves centre next to it, and then immediately left into Summerland St. Take the third right (the first being no entry) into Barbican Terrace. The entrance to the Old Vicarage is immediately on the left.

By Car from the South (Bideford): Follow signposts to Barnstaple Town centre, this will bring you to a roundabout with large standing stones and then over the bridge into Barnstaple, pass the bus station (on the left), go straight on at the first roundabout, and right around the second roundabout with the Army Reserves centre next to it to double back on yourself, and then immediately left into Summerland St. Take the third right (the first being no entry) into Barbican Terrace. The entrance to the Old Vicarage is immediately on the left.
